

DOCTORAL SCHOOL ON INNOVATION

Within the 'Escola Doutoral Pedro Hispano' (FCSH-UNL), the IHC organises the LISBON DOCTORAL SCHOOL ON INNOVATION open to all graduate students interested in enrolling..

Coordination: Maria Fernanda Rollo and Tiago Brandão

18-22 JUNE 2015

THURSDAY, 18th

OPENING SESSION

14:00-17:00

Manuel Heitor (IN+ / IST)

What has changed in Europe after the European Research Area and times of increased uncertainty? Challenges and opportunities for science, technology and education policy

17:30-20:30

Benoît Godin (INRS)

Innovation: An History of an Anonymous Concept

FRIDAY, 19th

9:00-12:00

Tiago Brandão (IHC, FCSH-UNL)

From 'best practices' to mimesis: Innovation policies on semi peripheral countries

14:00-17:00

Apostolos Spanos (University of Agder)

Historical Approaches to the Idea of Innovation

17:30-20:30

Benoît Godin (INRS)

Technological Innovation: The Emergence of an Inclusive Concept

SATURDAY, 20th

9:00-12:00

Sebastian Pfotenhauer (MIT)

Expertise, legitimacy, and identity: Imaginaries of innovation and the circulation of "best-practices" in national innovation strategies

14:00-17:00

Maria Fernanda Rollo (IHC, FCSH-UNL)

Contexts and Tensions in the History of Innovation

17:30-20:30

Benoît Godin (INRS)

Models of Innovation: Why Models of Innovation are Models, or, What Work is Being Done in Calling them Models

MONDAY, 22nd

9.00-12:00

Carolina Bagattolli (PPPP-UFPR)

The Politics of Innovation in Latin America: studies, discourses and perspectives

CLOSING SESSION

14:00-17:00

Reijo Miettinen (University of Helsinki)

From National innovation system to virtuous cycle between democracy, equality and economic development registration:

ixdocschoolinnovation.wordpress.com/
ihc@fcsch.unl.pt